

Life of Jesus

Life of Jesus
Text:	Bible, New International Version
Supplemental materials:	Handouts provided by the instructor during the semester
Course Description:	Life of Jesus is a one-semester course (1/2 unit). Life of Jesus is a study of the events in and surrounding the life of Jesus and a review of his basic teachings in the gospels. After introductory material the four gospels are examined to see in each: The pre-existence, preparation for ministry, the ministry (preliminary, settled, specialized, and concluding ministries) and the closing events.
Methods of Evaluation:	Tests are the primary means of evaluation. Notebook checks are also evaluated.
Pace of Instruction:	1 st Quarter: Introduction, pre-existence, preparation for ministry 2 nd Quarter: The ministry (preliminary, settled, specialized, and concluding ministries) and the closing events.
Course Objectives:	The goal of this course is to study the Life of Jesus chronologically using all four gospels. Students should know the major events in Jesus' life and understand the significance of these events. Jesus' teaching should be applied to each student's own life.
Date completed:	October 5, 2008
