

Text: Harcourt's "Science"

This curriculum is designed to increase students' awareness of their surrounding environment by exploring nature and the components that make up our world. Plants, animals, weather, and Earth sciences are major areas of emphasis.