General Updates/Committee Reports

Box Tops- Chantana Blessett reported that the latest Box Tops check has come in to the business office for $4824.26. The current Box Tops collection period ended on January 9th. Approximately 15,000 Box Tops were collected, totaling around $1500. The class that collected the most Box Tops was Mrs. Slaughter's class, and they will receive a free lunch from Chick-fil-a on January 22nd. The next Box Tops collection deadline will be March 27th.

Teacher Appreciation- Jennifer Bryk is organizing the upcoming Luncheon to be held on February 5th. The theme is, "Our Teachers are Souper!" Jennifer needs parents to sign up to bring items for this event.

Labels For Education- The next collection date is today, January 15th. Nut Cards will go out soon and Dawn Byrd will have updates at the February PTF meeting.

Georgia Day- Chaired by Jessica Walden, this event will take place on February 20th. Jessica asked Don Adams to talk to Savannah Bee Company about donating honey for this event. At this time, donations have been made by Coke, The Pink House, and Chick-Fil-A. For pre-k through 1st grade, Jessica is requesting 4 parent volunteers for each class. For grade 2 – 4, she is requesting 3 parent volunteers for each class. Jessica also mentioned that any dads that could help Coach Priddy with the outdoor activities would be greatly appreciated.

New Business

Chanda Mashburn informed everyone that it is time to turn in nominations for PTF officers for the next school year. Anyone interested in holding any Chair positions should contact Chanda Mashburn and Dr. Palmer for more information.

Fundraiser- The PTF is considering taking on the silent auction that takes place during super Saturday as this years fundraising event. There was some discussion on whether or not parents should be asked to help contribute to this fundraiser, be it through business contacts or helping to create themed baskets to be auctioned off. Organizing this event are Holly Bishop, Jessica Walden, Debbie Nash, and Cory Gee.

Closing prayer by Randy Dart

Next Meeting is February 5th at 8:30am.
