

Text: Abeka's "God's World"

The Pre-Kindergarten science program is designed to introduce and familiarize students with basic science concepts. They are designed to help students understand God's world and His creations through exploration, observation, and experimentation.