

Text: Harcourt's "Science"

Second Grade Science exposes students to a variety of science areas through a combination of experiments, use of textbook and various projects. Students will use the scientific method to help explore God's creation. Areas of study include Earth/Space science, Life Science, and Physical Science.